

CSE: Phone Marketing and Focus did not submit their six-month results – Already in suspension

The Cyprus Stock Exchange announces, with the expiry of the period of submission of the six-month results of companies that have listed their titles in the Emerging Companies Market of the CSE for the period ended June 30, 2012, that Phone Marketing SA and Focus Financial Services SA have not submitted their results yet, pursuant to the provisions of Article 142 of the Law.

The trading of their titles has already been suspended due to their failure to submit the final results for the year ended December 31, 2011.

The Cyprus Stock Exchange notes that it is taking all necessary measures so that the aforementioned companies comply with their obligations pursuant to the legal and regulatory framework of the CSE.
